

The Christian's Attitude Toward Roles

What roles do you fill in your life? Why is it important to recognize what God teaches about these roles?

1. God Has Designed Roles For Christians To Fulfill

Who has created the home? What are some roles God has designed in the home?

Who has created the church? What are some roles God has designed in the church?

Are there roles in other areas of your life beyond these? Does God care how you fulfill roles in areas He has not specifically designed and regulated?

2. Some Roles Have Been Specifically Assigned

Why is it important to recognize God knows best? How is this applicable to your roles?

Has God assigned any specific roles in the home? If so, give some examples.

Has God assigned any specific roles in the church? If so, give some examples.

Are these specific roles God has assigned open to interpretation or negotiation? Why or why not?

3. Commit To Fulfilling Your Roles

Are roles important? If so, why?

Why is it important to carefully identify the roles you currently fill, plus roles you could fill?

Will you always be in the same roles as others? Why is it important for you to do your part to fulfill your roles?
